

Post Op Frenulectomy

Your child may have a swollen lip for a few days. If the lip becomes reddened or swelling increased please contact your physician.

Minor bleeding should be controlled with holding pressure to the surgical site.

There is minimal to no discomfort with this procedure and can be managed with Tylenol or Acetaminophen.

You may resume normal diet immediately following surgery.